

Beginning December 2013, the Indiana General Assembly will have a redesigned website.

As part of this redesign, third party developers will be provided information on how to access legislative information using a RESTian API. The API will be published in June, 2013, and will provide a platform for testing sample documents.

If you would like to be notified when the API is available please send a request to bamos@iga.in.gov.